2018 ISST CERTIFICATION TRAINING PROGRAMS RESPONSIBILITIES

1. CONTENT – fulfills the approved ISST curriculum and provides the minimum number of hours required (25, 15) as of 3-5-2018

2. APPLICATION PROCESS –The program is responsible to explain the ISST requirements to the trainees and must be current on all requirements for certification. is transparent and follows ISST guidelines

3. QUALIFICATIONS OF TRAINERS -certified trainer-supervisors in good standing with ISST

4. AVAILABILITY OF QUALIFIED SUPERVISORS – the program provides referral to qualified supervisors fluent in the language of the country ad clients.

5. TAPE RATINGS- the program identifies raters for trainees
    a. Definition of "Independent Rater"

6. USE OF THE MODULE ATTENDANCE CERTIFICATE- the components of the curriculum delivered, didactic and dyadic hours and number of participants, trainers and the approved program responsible for the content of the training must be clearly identified and the training program director must sign off on any training not directly provided by faculty of the program.

7. RUNNING TRAINING PROGRAMS IN COUNTRIES OTHER THAN THE PROGRAM'S LOCATION- although ISST does not make any attempt and has no authority to regulate where approved training programs are offered. Members are expected to be sensitive to the issues involved when offering their training program in another country, which has its own home based program with native speakers.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN APPROVAL OF TRAINING PROGRAMS

1. TRAINERS ARE CURRENT ON ISST DUES
2. CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS ARE MET
3. QUALITY ASSURANCE EVALUATIONS ARE AVAILABLE