During this term of office more of the record keeping and administrative aspects of the certification process were assumed by the ISST Office staff and manager. Our devoted country reviewers help tremendously by checking applications for completeness and meeting the licensing and professional organization membership requirements of their countries. This was an important change given the large increase in applications of all kinds and shortened our response time to applications considerably. Applications in the specialty areas take more time as they must first go to the specialty area certification committee for review and recommendation before they come to me for final review and approval. The same is true for the training program applications. I expect that if the Training and Certification aspects of this position are split as the EB is suggesting we will be able to improve the response time on all applications. My apologies that this report is brief, but it was requested during the time I was on vacation.

Respectfully submitted,
